Client Meeting Notes #4 (April 23)

Aims

- Talk about the backend with the client (make sure to use layman terms)
- Get feedback/ideas from the client if they have any pertaining to the backend only
- Keep the meeting short
- Try to refrain from bringing up the frontend section from them

Chat Log

- Meeting started late for today
- Rebecca, Charlotte and Victoria are in the call
- Nat gives the briefing and explains our current plan to present the actual prototype in person
    - Anna agrees
- Nat continues to explain what the previous meetings entailed
- Nat gives an update on the current state of the frontend and mentions the progress of the backend
    - Gives more information about the functions that we plan to implement on the backend for this project
    - Mentions the authentication as well
- Comments from the clients
    - Rebecca mentions good things about the project
    - Charlotte and Victoria has nothing to mention
- No questions from the clients for this meeting
- Zainab mentions an in-person meeting for the prototype for the next meeting (Week 9)
    - In-person meeting can be between the university or the Te Tuhi Cafe
    - Ended up choosing the cafe, in order to let the trainees have a go at the interface as well
    - Must have everything done by May 9th, must be earlier before 1 (in order for Charlotte to attend)
- There are two more meetings left week 9 and 11
- Zainab asks if there is a code-based submission
    - Aim to have it done by Week 12 (Deadline)
    - If you need to have changes done by Week 13 (June 25th)
